WRITTEN ANSWERS TO UNSTARRED QUESTIONS

Intimation of policy decisions and programmes to PMO

1019. SHRI S.S. AHLUWALIA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether the practice, convention and rules of our Cabinet system of governance imply, inter-alia that policy decisions and programmes, when framed by Ministries and Departments, are intimated to the Prime Minister's Office (PMO) well before their introductions;

(b) whether the same is being done away with;

(c) if so, the rationale thereof; and

(d) if not the veracity of recent newspaper reports in the Press suggesting that PMO has been writing since 3rd September, 2004 repeatedly to various Ministries/Departments highlighting the growing practice of informing the PMO of policy decisions at the last moments only before their scheduled official announcements?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE (SHRI PRITHVIRAJ CHAVAN): (a) The business of the Government of India is transacted in accordance with the rules framed under Article 77(3) of the Constitution of India and accordingly, the business allotted to a Ministry/Department is disposed of by or under the general or special directions of the Minister-in-Charge except in cases, where the business of other Departments/Ministers is impacted, or where the issues require approval of the Prime Minister, the President or the Cabinet and its committees or where the Minister-in-Charge of a Department/Ministry may, in view of the importance of the subject, desire such matter(s) to be placed before the Prime Minister, the Cabinet or its Committees. However, as the Head of the Government, the Prime Minister regularly interacts with other members of the Council of Ministers on various issues. Further,
